

MALAY TRADITIONAL COSTUMES

BAJU KURUNG

#1

Baju kurung is used to refer to both the male and female outfit. It is the traditional costume for the Malay community.

#2

Wore for formal occasions or as an everyday wear. During Hari Raya Puasa, Malay families wear the baju kurung when visiting their relatives and friends.

#3

2 popular styles: Telok Belangah & Cekak Musang

Telok Belangah
style

Cekak Musang
style

Photograph courtesy of Nuraini Othman

BAJU KURUNG (Female)

A loose-fitting blouse with long sleeves and is paired with a waistcloth known as a sarong

Photograph of a lady wearing baju kurung telok belangah. Ministry of Information and the Arts Collection, courtesy of the National Archives of Singapore

TUDUNG

Headscarf worn by Muslim women

Photograph of a lady wearing a tudung. Courtesy of National Archives of Singapore

BAJU KURUNG/BAJU MELAYU (MALE)

Men wear the baju kurung as a shirt top with pants, and a kain sampung that can be worn over the trousers

Example of a baju melayu.
Photograph courtesy of Jamal Mohammed

SONGKOK

A traditional headgear worn
by Malay males

Photograph from the Arthur B
Reich Collection, courtesy of National Archives of Singapore

KAIN SONGKET

Photo adapted from flickr

A woven cloth that is often decorated with either gold or silver threads

COLOURING TIME!

Instructions:

- Colour / decorate the picture of the mosque below after you are done with your paper dolls
- Stick your paper dolls on this colouring template after you are done

